MARRIAGE

Contact the parish office at least six months prior to your wedding. An initial interview with the parish priest is essential to confirm your wedding date.

THIS WEEKEND WE STAY WITH THE VINEYARD

ANALOGY as the Kingdom of God. We hear about the two sons: the first says he won't work but ends up working. The second says he will work but doesn't. Although both brothers are relatable in comparison to different moments in our lives, the first brother reminds us there is hope. He rejects the call but then changes his mind after thinking it over; perhaps he felt guilty. Many times we reject God's call. We feel tired, overworked, or we don't want to stretch beyond our comfort zones. God continues to call us, however, providing us many opportunities to change our minds. We are all walking the path of life and each time we reject God's call our path becomes a little more crooked and a little longer and "roundabout"; but GOD CAN MAKE STRAIGHT LINES

FROM CROOKED PATHS. There is always time to "change our minds". As we learned last week, even those who only worked for one hour in the vineyard were still given equal pay and welcomed with open arms into the Kingdom because they WORKED the hour. There is always time to do the work. God's call comes in many ways: that nudge to call back your friend, make peace with someone, discover and/or offer your gifts to the community, etc. Consider: where have you felt those nudges in your own life?

We encourage you to use Direct Debit for your Sunday donations. You may use Visa, MasterCard or your bank account. Just fill out the white form available from the Hospitality desk.
